

PRESS RELEASE
THE ROYAL AERO CLUB TRUST ANNOUNCES THEIR FLYING BURSARY WINNERS FOR 2008

The Royal Aero Club Trust is pleased to announce flying bursary winners for 2008.

Amongst other activities, the Trust exists to help young people develop their full potential through air sports. Annually, it offers two kinds of bursary, each of up to £500, to enable young people from 16 years of age to progress in their air sport and to enable Personal Computer or flight simulator pilots gain initial flying experience.

Additionally, the Trust carries out research into air sports and it preserves aviation history – for further details visit the Trust's website: www.royalaeroclubtrust.org

Details of how to apply for a 2009 bursary will be posted on the Trust's website in September 2008.
